ABOUT COCHRANE SUPPLY & ENGINEERING

Cochrane Supply & Engineering was founded in 1967 and has grown into an internationally-recognized Smart Building Controls Supplier, including being named a Top 50 U.S. HVACR Distributor by Distribution Trends Magazine. Cochrane Supply is proud to be your source of building automation systems, HVAC controls, smart building technology, and building controls and services. With a best-in-class tech support team and dedicated training division, Cochrane Supply provides the resources and tools to help contractors, systems integrators, facility managers, technicians, engineers and more optimize their success in the industry.

Representing more than 100 of the industry's top manufacturers, Cochrane Supply's huge selection of products blend innovation and solutions for customized facility management and improved building efficiency when it comes to HVAC, security, energy, lighting, gas-detection, life safety and more. The company's customer-centric staff has been connecting integrated building systems to the internet for more than two decades, staying at the forefront of smart building solutions and leveraging the growing possibilities of the Internet of Things (IoT).

Cochrane Supply has been featured in top industry publications such as AutomatedBuildings.com, HVAC Insider, ControlTrends' ControlTalk NOW, ACHR News, Contractor Magazine, DBusiness Magazine, PHCP Pros, Mechanical Business, Contracting Business, IoT Idols Podcast and CAM Magazine (Construction Association of Michigan). Cochrane Supply is additionally honored to host a biennial Smart Building and Building Controls Conference known as Controls-Con. This fast-paced and resource-packed event includes educational programs, networking, a building automation trade show showcasing the latest innovative products, and more!
